When we picked out the ewe lamb to take to NAILE last fall, it was a toss up between this ewe and the Junior Champion Ewe we took. Today, there still isn't much difference. We always try to bring a top yearling ewe out of our keeper pen, and I decided to bring this one. At worst, she is our number 2 yearling ewe on the farm. She's big, super deep with nice rib shape, long with a level and square hip, and she is heavy boned. I would love to keep her and show her with her pen mate as they made an awesome pair. But with bringing a limited number to the sale, I want one there that shows the quality of our flock. Someone will get not just a show ewe, but a tremendous brood ewe. Gus sired our Champion Ewe at the 2011 National Sale. He was Reserve National Champion Ram in 2010 and was Champion at Ohio and Indiana State Fairs that year. Gus is sired by "Super Freaky" who sired our Champion Ewe at the 2012 NAILE. The dam (5045) was the Reserve Champion Ewe at the 2006 Ohio State Fair and she is the dam of last years Reserved Champion Ewe at the National Sale. She is sired by our Kuykendall Ram that was Reserved Champion and Best Headed at the 2004 National Sale.

This is a complete female that is deep bodied and thick made.

Don't miss an opportunity to purchase a ram sired the same way as the high selling ram at last year's National Sale. His sire, Traglia 201010, Reserve Champion Ram at the 2010 National Sale, continues to make his mark as this lamb's growth is off the charts. He is correct with lots of volume and excellent breed type. His full sister was the 2012 Evergreen State Fair Supreme Champion Ewe and 2012 Puyallup Fair Champion Ewe. His dam is one of our top producers.

Her sire, Traglia 201010, Reserve Champion Ram at the 2010 National Sale, has consistently produced excellent females and this one is no exception. She is pretty, full of style and balance and definitely worth a look.

"Big Johnson" is our Jim Johnson stud we have used for 4 years. Judy Moore, Roger Flynn, and Terry Wood have all purchased at least one son of him and we have 30 ewes out of him. This ram is the last yearling we will sell unless it keeps raining. Do not miss out on having a "Big Johnson" son for your own flock.

Youngest ewe we had last year. 469 is the tallest, most extended brood ewe we have. She had a great set of twin ewe lambs this year otherwise we would keep this one.
